

ABOUT INTERNATIONAL PHOTOGRAPHY AWARDS™

The International Photography Awards (IPA) conducts an annual competition for professional, amateur, and student photographers on a global scale, creating one of the most ambitious and comprehensive competitions in the photography world today.

The IPA contest is a sister-effort of the Lucie Foundation, a 501 (c) 3 non-profit, charitable foundation whose mission is to honor master photographers, discover and cultivate emerging talent and promote the appreciation of photography worldwide. The annual programming of Lucie Foundation is funded largely though the International Photography Awards, including the signature event, the Lucie Awards.

We aim to salute the achievements of the world’s finest photographers, to discover new and emerging talents, and to promote the appreciation of photography.

BEST OF SHOW SELECTION

Each year, the IPA invites a guest curator to select 40 to 50 images from both the professional and non-professional pools of first, second, and third place winners to be exhibited in an exclusive “Best of Show” exhibition that opens during the week leading up to the Lucie Awards Gala. The Best of Show exhibition then travels to various countries to be included in photo festivals, galleries, and other photography related events throughout the following year.

PHOTOGRAPHER OF THE YEAR 2025

Echoes of Genocide: Gaza's Civilian Suffering

Abdelrahman Alkahlout
Editorial / Press Photographer of the Year

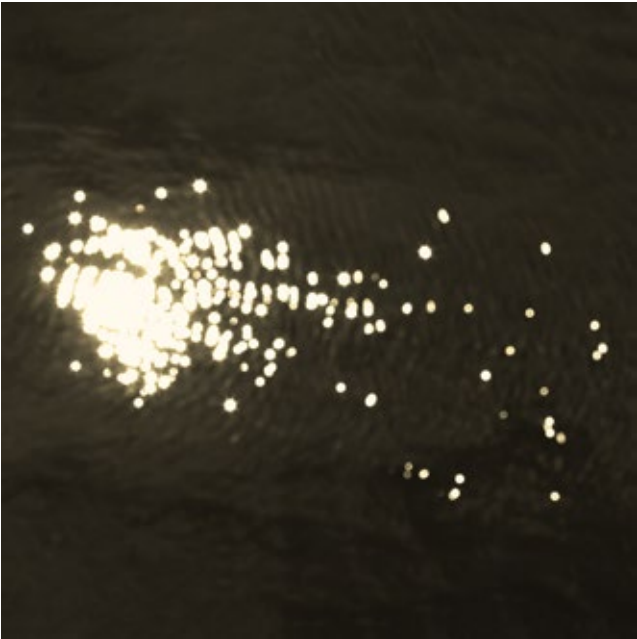

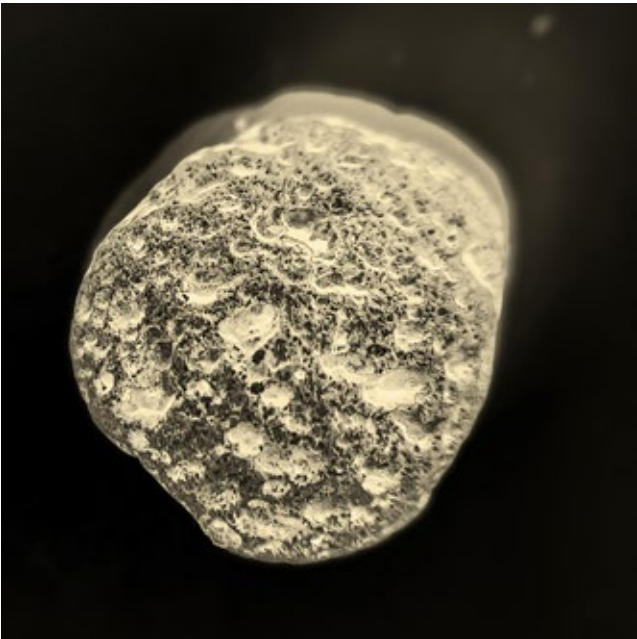

Since October 2023, Gaza has become a bloody scene of genocide: brutal airstrikes tearing apart peaceful neighborhoods; children's bodies pulled from rubble into overcrowded hospitals overwhelmed by agony. Heartbreaking scenes of mothers losing their children instantly, families displaced by relentless bombings into hunger and fragile tents. Mosques reduced to rubble, yet worshippers uphold their faith amid destruction. Homes emptied of life, childhoods stolen—children deprived of limbs but not hope, their eyes defiantly resilient, challenging the world.

DISCOVERY OF THE YEAR 2025

Murmures de l'âme
Marie Sueur
Fine Art Photographer of the Year

In a world that monitors, analyzes, and controls everything, I am drawn to the shadows, to those pockets of mystery that even the most advanced technologies have yet to colonize. Among these untamed territories lies the unconscious: a vast continent of ambiguity and vertigo, whispering its truths through the language of symbols and dreams. I set out to explore this mental space where reason gives way to instinct. A realm where words falter and images take over. An invitation, not to understand, but to feel. A descent into what we are, in the most secret part of ourselves.

PROFESSIONALS

Colour Has A New Chapter

Photographer: Jonathan Knowles (United Kingdom)

Prize: Advertising Photographer of the Year

Description: We were commissioned to shoot a series of images for the covers of a curated collection of classic novels produced by paint company Dulux Heritage. Each was painted using the Heritage hue that it evokes to deliver the campaign line: Let the feelings of your favourite books become the colours of your favourite rooms.

The images are intended as transient paint patterns that may emerge during the decorating process, each characterising the book on which it features.

Solid Maze of All That's Left Untold

Photographer: Piotr Zbierski (Poland)

Prize: Analog / Film Photographer of the Year

Description: Based on an intuitive, surreal narration the photographic series of Piotr Zbierski are constantly asking questions on relationships between nature and culture as well as between memory and narration. What happens between experience and the act of telling a story about it? Where does memory end and diary begins? His photography also connects the material reality with the wider spiritual understanding of the world. The works, very poetic and full of pure emotions, the depths of the human soul and the mysteries of life and death. Time feels like a place a house in constant renovation and expansion.

Requiem Pour Pianos

Photographer: Romain Thiery (France)

Prize: Architecture Photographer of the Year

Description: Romain Thiery (Bergerac, 1988), is a photographic artist and amateur pianist. Romain has combined these two arts in his Requiem pour Pianos series, which explores abandoned pianos around the world. For him, the piano is "deeply rooted in the depths of our culture" and never ceases to retain its nobility. Since 2014, he has discovered more than a hundred abandoned pianos, leaving the place as it is. The Requiem pour Pianos series has become the core of his artistic work, symbolizing both decadence and resilience and transforming pianos into silent witnesses to their era.

Fragili Equilibri

Photographer: Autori Multipli (Italy)

Prize: Book Photographer of the Year

Description: Our photography project chronicles the particularities of a country through the everyday experiences of ordinary people, often ignored and seen as “the last ones.” For us, they are authentic and fundamental voices, symbols of resilience and hope. The images reveal faces, smiles and intense expressions, showing their humanity and their crucial role for a more just and inclusive future.

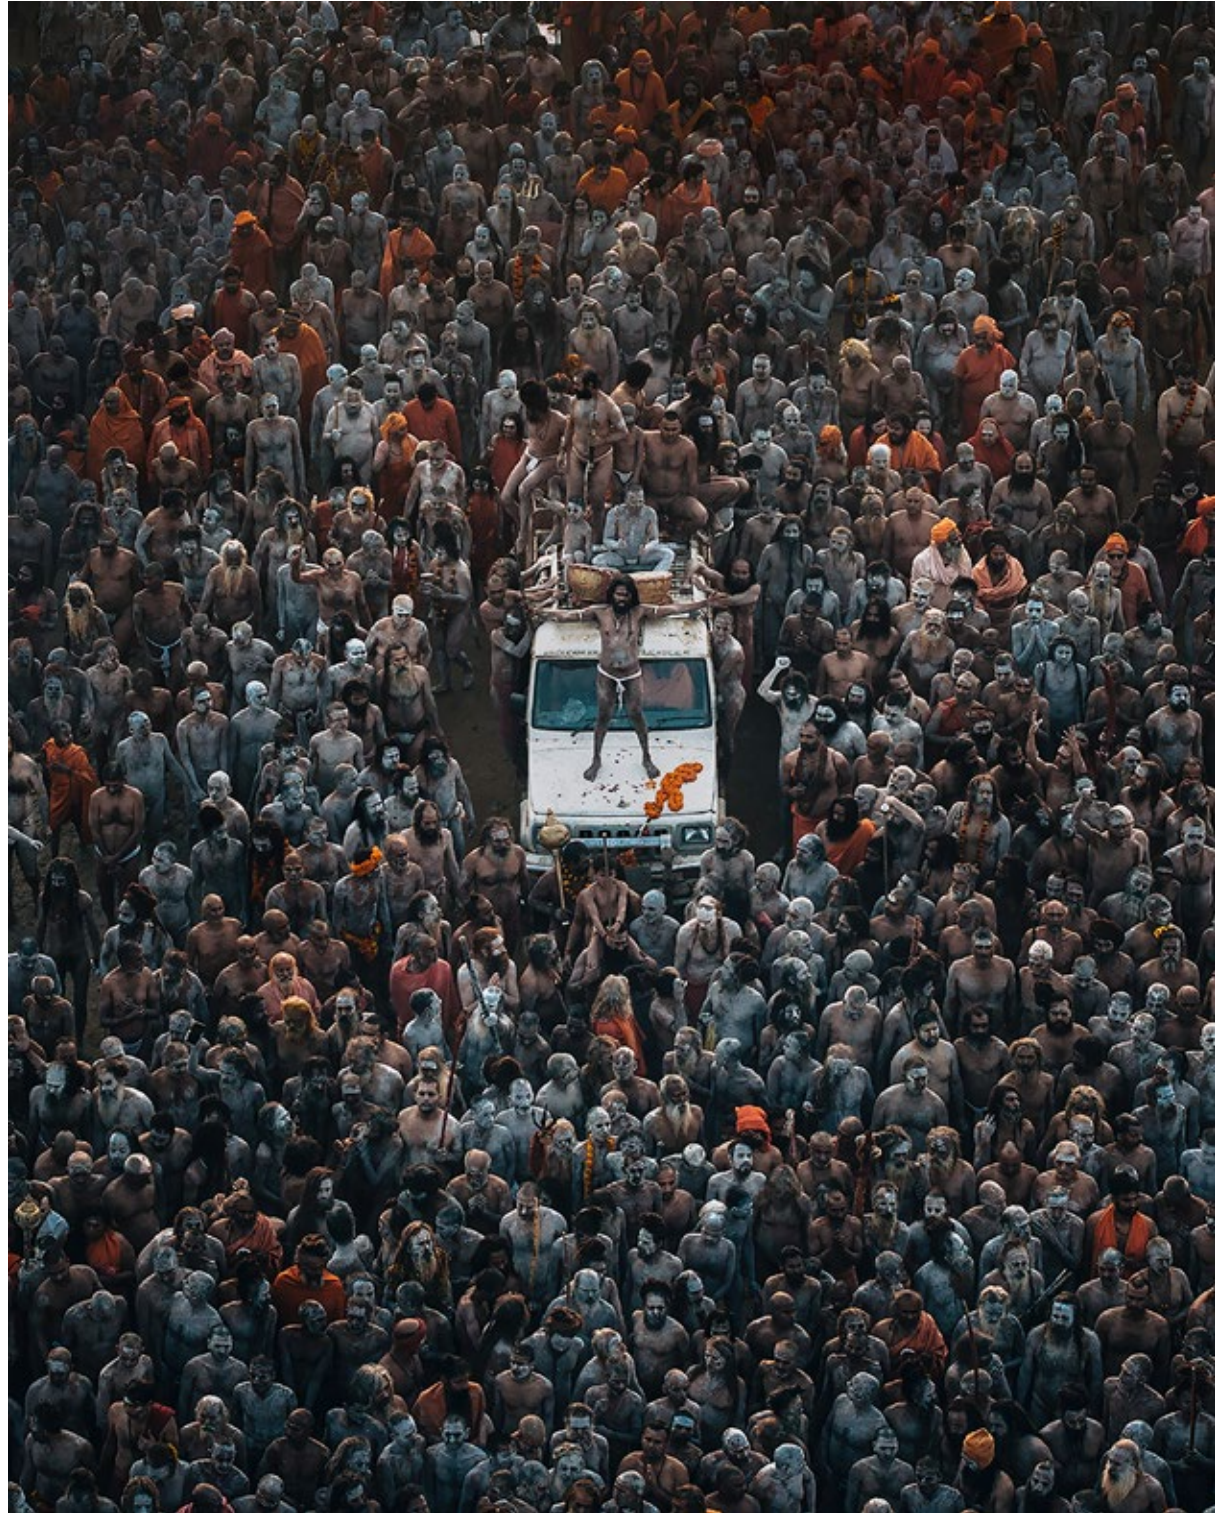

Echoes of Genocide: Gaza's Civilian Suffering

Photographer: Abdelrahman Alkahlout (Palestine)

Prize: Editorial / Press Photographer of the Year

MahaKumbh - World's Largest Gathering
 Photographer: Savadmon Avalachamveettil (Ireland)
 Prize: Event Photographer of the Year
 Description: A once-in-144 years phenomenon. Ash-smeared Hindu holy men (Naga Sadhus) charged into India's most sacred river Ganges at dawn on the first most significant bathing day of the Kumbh Mela festival. An extraordinary display of human unity, spiritual energy, and collective consciousness.

Frida - A Singular Vision of Beauty & Pain
 Photographer: Julia Fullerton-Batten (United Kingdom)
 Prize: Fine Art Photographer of the Year
 Description: I came to Mexico City in 2022 and fell in love with everything Mexican. The people, colours, and the rhythm of life; and so much of what I fell in love with came from Frida Kahlo, her influence is everywhere, she seems to pulse through the veins of Mexico. Frida Kahlo's art transcends the confines of the canvas and becomes a testament to female unity & empowerment. By embracing her own vulnerabilities and sharing her painful human experience with unabashed honesty, she shattered the boundaries of what art could be and became an icon of hope and inspiration for generations of women artists.

The Beautiful of Floating Babies

Photographer: Sho Otani (Japan)

Prize: Nature Photographer of the Year

Description: This portfolio consists of beautiful sea babies about 5mm~10cm. Many of the underwater creatures have glass-like bodies, bright colors, and mysterious shapes that are only found when they are babies. Because they float in the ocean, they can be photographed from a variety of angles. Floating in the background of the sea at night, they are as beautiful as stardust floating in space. In the cover photo, the reflection of the subject on the surface of the water makes it look as if there are two of these beautiful deep-sea fish. I hope many people will see this beautiful underwater story.

Family In Vitro

Photographer: Natasha Pszenicki (United Kingdom)

Prize: People Photographer of the Year

Description: Historical boundaries have often dictated belonging, Jade & Grace's story offers a quiet subversion, presenting family as a boundless, evolving art form. As a queer interracial married couple, they reclaim spaces shaped by exclusion and assert their right to be seen and celebrated as women with equal rights to parenthood. Each portrait in this series not only reimagines the traditional family tableau but also evokes a sense of timelessness. Through this lens, Jade & Grace illuminate the transformative power of love, inviting viewers to reflect on their own definitions of family & embrace a broader vision.

Damselfies From Another Planets

Photographer: Pedro Luis Ajuriaguerra Saiz (Spain)
 Prize: Special Photographer of the Year

Description: There are worlds we don't see, not because they're far away, but because they're too small.Damselflies From Another Planet is an invitation to immerse ourselves in that hidden universe, where insects—silent inhabitants of our environment—reveal themselves as creatures of a beauty as disturbing as it is fascinating.Through extreme macro photography, this series transforms the everyday into the extraordinary. Each faceted eye, each antenna, each tiny hair is exalted until it becomes a work of art in itself.The objective isn't scientific, it's aesthetic.

Buzkashi

Photographer: Todd Antony (United Kingdom)
 Prize: Sports Photographer of the Year

Description: Buzkashi, meaning “goat pulling” in Persian, is the wild sport of Tajikistan and its neighboring ‘Stans.’ Think polo - but with a headless, eviscerated goat instead of a ball, hundreds of riders, and no formal teams. Rooted in the nomadic cultures of Central Asia and played for hundreds of years, riders battle for control of the goat while dodging rivals (and the occasional whip or elbow) in scenes reminiscent of a Napoleonic battle painting. The rule book is a mere couple of sentences, with the match often overflowing into the fleeing crowd. Games can last for hours.

CATEGORY WINNERS
NON-PROFESSIONALS

Porcelain Petals

Photographer: Natalie Vorontsoff (United States)

Prize: Advertising Photographer of the Year

Description: "Porcelain Petals" explores the resilience of the human spirit through the art of mending. Inspired by the Chinese and Japanese technique of repairing broken porcelain with gold, this fine art photography series captures the beauty in imperfection, symbolizing strength, healing, and grace. Each image weaves delicate fragility with luminous resilience, transforming past wounds into gilded scars of wisdom. This project is a visual meditation on pain, renewal, and the quiet power of embracing one's history with compassion.

Misplaced Childhood

Photographer: Yehor Lemzyakoff (Poland)

Prize: Analog / Film Photographer of the Year

Description: "Misplaced Childhood" explores the theme of early maturity among children growing up in rural Poland. This documentary series captures the moments where innocence intertwines with responsibility, freedom with constraints, and childhood with the inevitability of growing up too soon. Through a series of black-and-white portraits, the project reflects on the lived realities of children who, while still engaged in play, are already confronting the structures of adulthood—be it through the responsibilities imposed by their environment, economic circumstances, or cultural expectations.

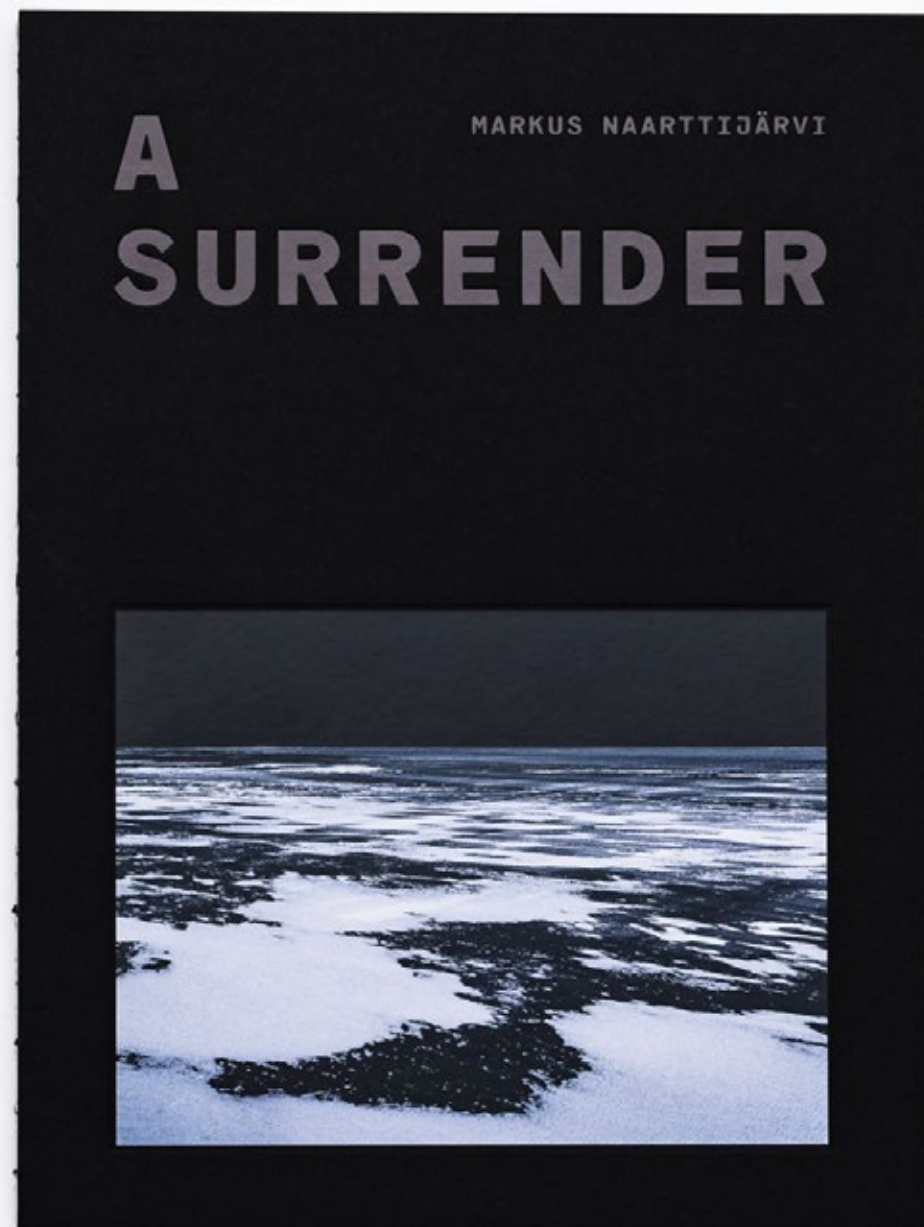

Icon of Architectural

Photographer: Mohammad Awadh (Kuwait)

Prize: Architecture Photographer of the Year

Description: Heydar Alive Center in Baku in Azerbaijan one of the unique and beautiful building in the world.

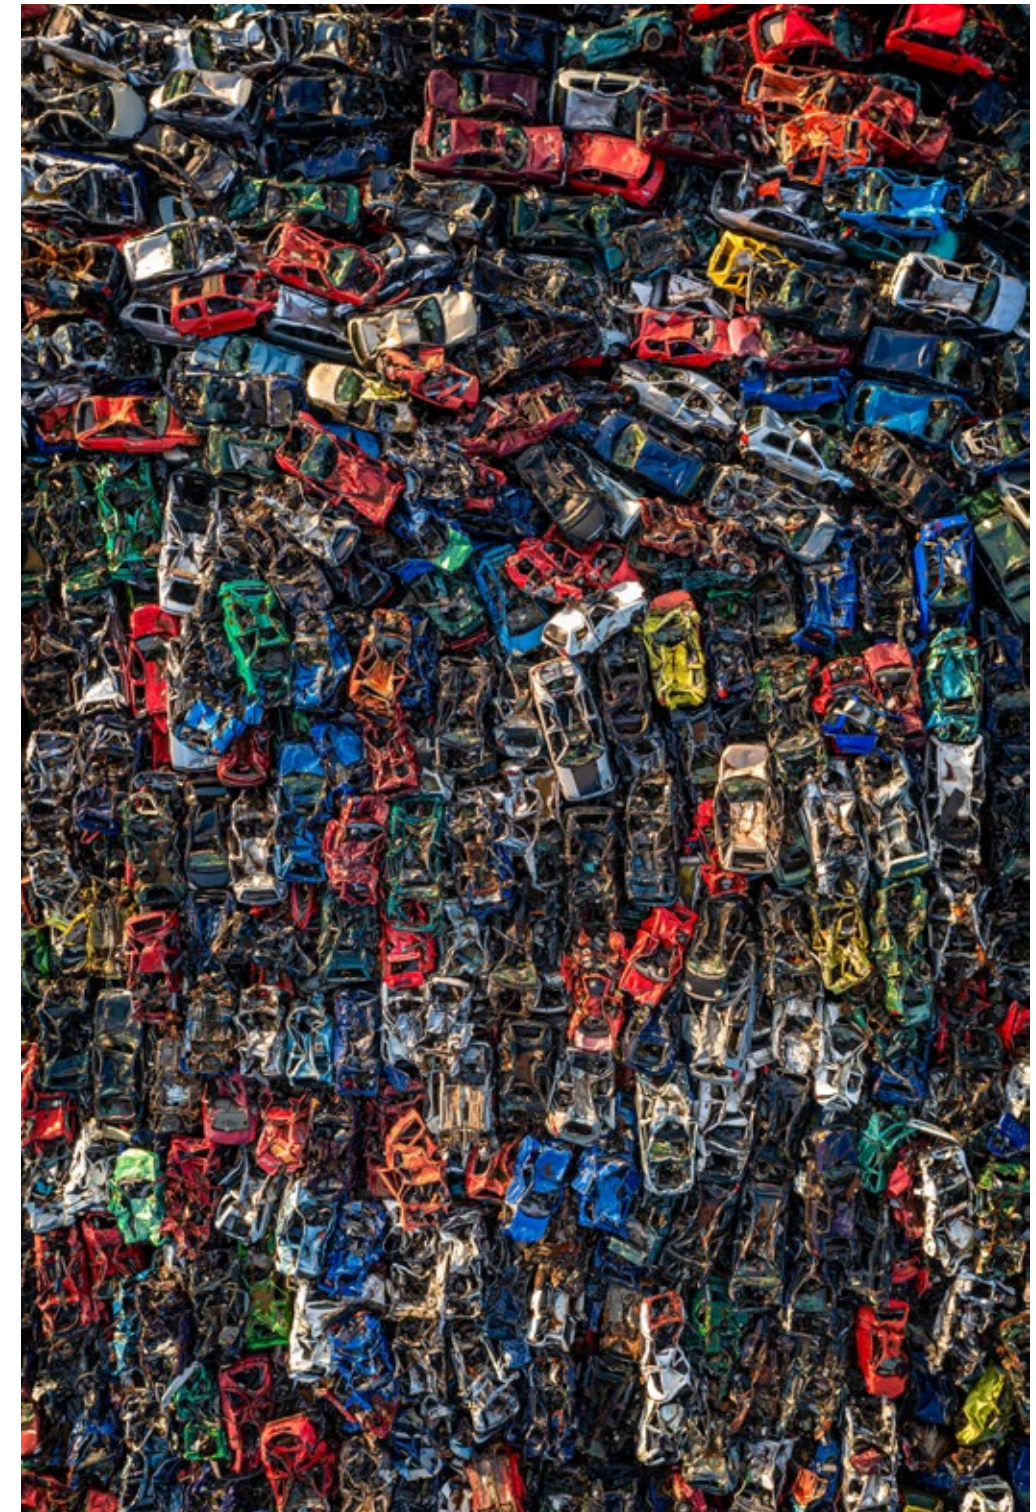

A Surrender

Photographer: Markus Naarttijarvi (Sweden)

Prize: Book Photographer of the Year

Description: The haunting stillness of Swedish winter serves as the inspiration and backdrop for Markus Naarttijärvi's debut monograph A Surrender. Shot over 1,000 consecutive days, Naarttijärvi navigates spaces stuck in a liminal twilight — somewhere between death and rebirth, where human industry dissolves into nature's embrace. Each photograph is a step in a journey of appreciation between growth and decay, society and wilderness, resistance and surrender. With patience and persistence, Naarttijärvi transforms collapse and new growth into a meditation on impermanence.

The Overflowing Earth

Photographer: Sebastian Piorek (Poland)

Prize: Editorial / Press Photographer of the Year

Description: I have documented Poland's expanding landfills, capturing images that reveal waste piling up at an alarming rate. These views expose the unsettling reality of a world consumed by trash. What once seemed like isolated dumps now spread endlessly, forming landscapes where refuse dominates. The abstract beauty of patterns contrasts with the grim truth they hold. As the project progresses, the images become increasingly claustrophobic, mirroring a future where nothing remains but waste. This series is a call to rethink consumption and sustainability before our world is buried under its own excess.

South Island Group Wedding

Photographer: Yu Ling Ho (Taiwan)

Prize: Event Photographer of the Year

Description: This photo series documents the vibrant and deeply meaningful aboriginal collective wedding held annually in Pingtung. From the formal engagement and betrothal gift ceremonies to the final wedding day, every step is rich with ancestral customs passed down through generations. The couples are dressed in stunning traditional attire, each design reflecting tribal identity, family heritage, and cultural pride. Elders bless the unions, families gather in celebration, and the air is filled with music, dance, and heartfelt joy.

Murmures de L'âme

Photographer: Marie Sueur (France)

Prize: Fine Art Photographer of the Year

Description: In a world that monitors, analyzes, and controls everything, I am drawn to the shadows, to those pockets of mystery that even the most advanced technologies have yet to colonize. A descent into what we are, in the most secret part of ourselves.

Iowa Storm Cell

Photographer: Ilene Meyers (United States)

Prize: Nature Photographer of the Year

Description: This was a wild and crazy day searching for just such a storm cell. Quite the adventure!

Inside Romania

Photographer: Ilona Schong (Netherlands)

Prize: People Photographer of the Year

Description: This series contains images of life in the still traditional, authentic Romanian homes where I was so warmly welcomed by each of the residents during my travels through Romania. The encounter behind each photograph is still vivid in my mind, and I often left moved and overwhelmed with prayers for myself and my family. It was a truly emotional journey for me and a life worth documenting, because it will soon disappear.

Emotive Snapshots

Photographer: Monia Marchionni (Italy)
 Prize: Special Photographer of the Year
 Description: Italy, Summer 2023
 "Emotive snapshots" is a body of work born suddenly on an early summer day, while I was observing my daughter relating to the sea and the bathers. All summer I captured moments of "magical realism" with my smartphone because I felt particularly inspired, transforming every day into a little fantastic story with soft colors and a retro atmosphere. Poetic visions that show how summer is not just a season but a feeling.

Piercing The Rainbow

Photographer: Kohei Kawashima (Japan)
 Prize: Sports Photographer of the Year
 Description: This image was captured at the first hairpin of Tsukuba Circuit. As the rider accelerated through the corner, his silhouette cut sharply across a swirl of colors, like a comet streaking through a rainbow. I created this photograph in the spirit of "Suisai Nagashi", a technique that expresses not only motion, but the tension, energy, and fleeting beauty found within it. I hope this moment of speed and color speaks to the viewer as strongly as it did to me.
